| Section III — Declaration | |
|--|-------|
| I solemnly swear (or affirm) that we, the undersigned, are married to each other by virtue of the following facts: On or about _____ we agreed to be married, and after that date we lived together as spouses and in this state we represented to others that we were married. Since the date of marriage to the other person I have not been married to any other person. This declaration is true and the information in it which I have given is correct. I understand that this can be used as evidence that we were married if a dispute arises over whether we were married. | |
