Section III — Declaration
I solemnly swear (or affirm) that we, the undersigned, are married to each other by virtue of the following facts: On or about _____ we agreed to be married, and after that date we lived together as spouses and in this state we represented to _____ others that we were married. Since the date of marriage to the other person I have not been married to any other person. This declaration is true and the information in it which I have given is correct. I understand that this can be used as evidence that we were married if a dispute arises over whether we were married.
