

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Are interviews for new hires still being conducted?

A: Yes, the Human Resources department is conducting interviews and at the hiring manager's request, interviews are being scheduled via phone, in person or virtually.

Q: Are interviews still being held on site?

A: Yes, depending on the position and department interviews are still being held on site.

Q: Should I be concerned about being exposed to COVID-19?

A: No, safety precautions are in place for all who enter into our facilities.

Q: What safety measures are being taken to protect the safety of staff and non – staff members?

A: We are screening all visitors, staff and patients properly to ensure the safety of our staff and community.

Q: Are shifts and hours different due to this pandemic?

A: Shifts and hours vary depending on department needs and availability of staff

Q: What training methods are being offered for medical staff during this time period?

A: Training methods and proper safety procedures are being mandated based upon departments and management.