

Healthy Telecommuting: Healthy Workspace

Taught by the Harris Health Employee Wellness Team

Healthy Telecommuting Series

- Healthy Workspace
- Staying Social and staying safe
- The Importance of Routine
- Staying active at home
- Communication

Healthy Workspace

- Proper Setup
- Good lighting
- Limit distractions
- Stay organized
- Take frequent breaks

Home office setup tips

- Ideally, monitors are at eye level, elbows at 90 degrees, knees and hips at 90 degrees
- 2. Use external input devices
- 3. Be mobile
- 4. Get resourceful
- 5. Create a visually appealing environment with greenspace

Lighting and Greenery

- Window perpendicular to monitor
- Open window shades/blinds
- Take a walk outside
- Look out your window

Limit distractions

- If you have a home office, use it
- Keep background noise to a minimum or use quiet music if it keeps you on target
- Create a "family workspace"
- Take shifts

Stay Organized

- If possible, bring your commonly used work items home, journals, files, etc.
- Designate an area as your "home office"
- Keep it clean

Break Time!

- Every 60 minutes, stand up and stretch
 - More if your work space is less than ideal
- Walk around your neighborhood or apartment complex
- Sit on your porch/balcony/front stoop to get some fresh air and Vitamin D

Stretches to prevent repetitive stress
